

Dionelly

Status:	Not Yet Freed for Adoption
Names:	Dionelly
Age:	13
Race:	White/Caucasian, Hispanic/Latino
Gender:	Female
State:	Illinois - Northern
Case #:	0101C8332
Profile Updated:	03/09/2016

Meet Dionelly

Dionelly is a bright young lady who is good at expressing how she feels. Dionelly enjoys school and does very well academically. In her spare time, she likes to hang out with her friends, go shopping, and play on her tablet. Dionelly has great determination and will accomplish anything she sets herself to do.

What Others Say About Dionelly

There have been no major behavior concerns for Dionelly in school or at home. Her teachers state that she is a joy to have in their class and she does very well academically. Dionelly can have an attitude at times, but that is super common for any teenager.

What You Can Do for Dionelly

When asked about adoption, Dionelly states that she would love her adoptive family to take her shopping. She also stated she would like the adoptive family “to accept us how we are and let us hang out with our friends.” Dionelly also says that the adoptive family should not scream at them. The family adopting Dionelly should accept her as one of their own. The family should be patient, supportive, and shower her with the love that she longs for. The adoptive family would encourage and support Dionelly to further her education.

Sibling

Diony

17, FEMALE